From the Pastor's Pen

Many times when I sit in my office, preparing a sermon, writing a newsletter article, planning a confirmation lesson, or doing the usual computer work, my eyes turn to my bookshelf for inspiration. I look for a particular title of a book written by a familiar author or I search for a resource that has stories, humorous or serious, something that will capture the mood I want to reflect on. Every now and then my eyes turn to the section I have on jokes and funny antidotes that my father passed on to me many years ago. They bring back many memories of days gone by.

Throughout history, authors have remembered events, individuals or many persons, through oral and written pieces. The writers try to capture the state of the moment, good or bad, for others to understand and value. This has taken place through poetry, stories, photography or painting, just to name a few expressions of the arts. They capture our imaginations and incite us to continue to tell the stories of the past. From an entertainment value, how many of us can recall a children's book because of the way someone read it to us or reading it to ourselves under blankets or in a tent with a flashlight. Our minds and our imaginations are incredible things.

In the month of April and May, stories and narratives will be shared as we ponder the love of God in our world, past and present, especially during Holy Week and Easter. During that time, we will hear at the Maundy Thursday Seder and Service, words from Exodus 13: 3, "Moses said to the people, 'Remember this day on which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, because the Lord brought you out from there by strength of hand; no leavened bread shall be eaten.'" We are called to remember these stories to help us on our present faith journey.

On Good Friday, we will reflect and meditate on the Stations of the Cross and the death of Jesus. I find this to be an important part of the Holy Week experience as it enables me to remember what Jesus went through and the hope we have in his death. Sin and death are no more. This is comforting to me as it was a year ago that my younger brother died during Holy Week and I need to remember and to know the Lord is my Shepherd. Powerful words to hear and live by.

Easter Sunday is always exciting as we bring back the Alleluia's that we have not said during the 40 days of the Lenten season. What a joy to know that our worshipping community, with others around the world, will lift up our voices in praise and thanksgiving, knowing that Christ has died, Christ has risen, and Christ will come again. Now that is something worth remembering.

Finally on that subject of remembering, we read from the Song of Moses before his death in Deuteronomy 32: 7, "Remember the days of old, consider the years long past; ask your father, and he will inform you; your elders, and they will tell you." In May, we will hear the living story of who and what ministry we as God's people have contributed and participated in through the written Reports presented at our Annual General / Vestry meeting. I always find this to be inspiring time as we hear about what God is doing in our lives. History is being recorded so that the story can be told and retold by our elders and "family members" for the generations to come. My prayer as we gather together at our Meeting is that we do so in the Spirit of our Creator God, sharing of the mission and ministry that we are involved in here in this place.

God's peace be with you.

Pastor Jeff

Council Perspective

"He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons; he provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy." Acts 14:17

As I write this, March has "gone out like a lion". The snow we woke up to last Sunday was certainly a wake-up call. March has always been a very hopeful month yet one of transition indeed. April is now upon us; a month where we sometimes experience "April showers" and yet we are full of hope now that spring is here. We can now look to the fruits of the future such as May flowers. It can be time of Lenten reflection and a time of hope and celebration in Christ's resurrection.

As we journey through the seasons, Council too has experienced them. April marks the last month to what we may call the "Council year of 2018-2019". With the arrival of the first Sunday in May, our Annual Congregational/Vestry meeting will take place and the rotation in the membership of Council will occur. Four of our members will be leaving and we will elect four new ones. It's a time of transition, of a wake-up call of sorts losing four very active members and yet the hopeful welcoming of new members to our team. As Chairperson, on behalf of the entire Congregation of All Saints, a sincere and heartfelt thanks to Carlo DeCastris, Sandra Christie, Suzanne Worthen, and Anne Stuart who have completed their term on Council. I hope you will find and take a moment to personally thanks them. Their faithful dedication to the business of ministry at All Saints has invaluable. Thank you.

Spring is a time of refreshment and we look forward to working with four new members of Council. I have included some general information on another page in this Connections edition to give you an idea what to expect as far as being a potential Council member. I personally invite you to sincerely contemplate this ministry opportunity.

Business at Council has included finalization of the Merger Amendment Document and the revised Constitution that we as a Congregation voted upon last Sunday. With the Congregation's approval, we can now seek the Diocese and Eastern Synod's final acceptance. This should allow us to complete the process of completing our charitable status with the CRA as All Saints.

Thank you!

Monthly reports were also discussed including our possible new sign along Silvercreek Parkway North, status of our membership, progress of projects such as the dishwasher and organ expansion, the possible creation of a more friendly outdoor worship space that could be used for various purposes, our financial position, and of possibilities to aid Pastor Jeff in ministry opportunities.

I have also included in this edition, a new process for organizing new outreach and fundraising activities at All Saints. Please take a moment to review that.

Indeed, we have much to be thankful for. As spring welcomes us with refreshing rain and sunshine, let us encourage new growth. (I Peter 4:10) Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.

Yours in Christ,
Brian

From the Deacon's Pencil

Wow, what a year. Just over a year has gone by since I hit the depth of despair. After a frantic trip to the hospital I was given no hope of life. I did not see Good Friday EASTER or many other days but God wasn't done with me yet.

With amazing doctors and nurses and many, many prayers I began to fight back.

I had a huge struggle. I had to learn to breathe again, eat again, walk again, talk again and do lots more.

It's been a long year and I know I would not be where I am today without the love and support of my family and many wonderful friends.

I wish to thank each and every one of you from the bottom of my heart. I think I am now headed in the right direction. It's a joy to take part in the service each week and I look forward to celebrating Palm Sunday, Good Friday and EASTER.

I wish you all a very Happy Easter and look forward to continuing to improve and work with you all.

Blessings,
Deacon Chris

Silvercreek Community Market

The Lenten Food Drive is going well and thank you to everyone who is helping us stock up on the essential foods we make available to our Market guests.

Please remember to check for "best before" dates of packages and cans. While the food might still be good to eat, we are following the Food Banks of Canada guidelines and can't give out food that is past the best before date.

The Market is still going strong and you are welcome to visit us on the first and third Thursday of each month. Volunteers are always welcome. Because this issue covers May as well, here is the regular list of non-perishables that we are collecting:

Cereal
Peanut Butter
Pasta (not KD)
Pasta Sauce
Canned Fruit
Canned Vegetables
Rice
Whole Red Lentils
Canned Meat

Thank you to the congregation for your ongoing financial support. Also, a big thank you to the many smiling volunteers who help each month.

POM Update (Peace of Mind Project)

Dear All Saints,

The POM project to supply girls and young women living in the Third World with reusable period protection to enable them to go to school, is active in our community. At intervals, we have a group sewing bee when we cut out pattern pieces and then many sewers take parts home to make pretty cotton bags and the colourful reusable pads at home.

Recently, at March break, 3 high school sewing teachers led a trip to Nicaragua to establish sewing collectives for women to make various projects including POM pads. Thanks to Robin Smart, we were able to send down an additional sewing machine which was very appreciated and the funding for our project provided wages for women to make the pads which were then distributed to young women who needed the security and opportunity provided by daily school attendance.

Our church was also able to send down much needed fabric, soap, pretty new underwear, ziplock baggies, attractive kit bags in cheerful colours and small reusable discreet carry cases thanks to hard work of our sewers and the kindness of our supporters.

If you are interested forming a small group to cut patterns during the day please call or email Deborah or Michelle Normandin. If you would like precut patterns to sew at home that would be wonderful also. In addition Michele is helping me reorganize my sewing room to better serve the project. Thanks Michelle!

This project from our hearts and helping hands changes lives one girl at a time. Peace of Mind is something every girl should enjoy and is something All Saints can really support.

Thank you for your love, advice, support, sewing skills and collecting materials. You are all saints!

COBS Bread

COBS has renewed our contract to pick up free bread for another year. This means a once a month pickup on the Wednesday night before the first Thursday Market each month. The free bread is given out to our Market guests.

We have a small group of volunteers to do this but it would be great to have some a few more people to help so that holidays etc. are covered.

We are looking for groups of 2-3 people with either one large vehicle or two vehicles to pick up bread at 8 p.m. on a Wednesday night.

If you can help please let me know.

Thank you

Attending a wedding for the first time, a little girl whispered to her mother, 'Why is the bride dressed in white?' The mother replied, 'Because white is the color of happiness, and today is the happiest day of her life.' The child thought about this for a moment then said, 'So why is the groom wearing black?'

A little girl, dressed in her Sunday best, was running as fast as she could, trying not to be late for Bible class. As she ran she prayed, 'Dear Lord, please don't let me be late! Dear Lord, please don't let me be late!' While she was running and praying, she tripped on a curb and fell, getting her clothes dirty and tearing her dress. She got up, brushed herself off, and started running again! As she ran she once again began to pray, 'Dear Lord, please don't let me be late, but please don't shove me either!'

Three boys are in the schoolyard bragging about their fathers.

The first boy says, 'My Dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a poem, they give him $50.' The second boy says, 'That's nothing. My Dad scribbles a few words on piece of paper, he calls it a song, they give him $100.' The third boy says, 'I got you both beat. My Dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a sermon, and it takes eight people to collect all the money!'

A police recruit was asked during the exam, 'What would you do if you had to arrest your own mother?' He answered, 'Call for backup.'

A Sunday School teacher asked her class why Joseph and Mary took Jesus with them to Jerusalem. A small child replied, 'They couldn't get a babysitter.'

Creating Music Brings Glory to God

During the season of Lent we have been fortunate to use the lyrics of our very own Andrew Usjak for one of our choir anthems. His lyrics were adapted to the hymn tune "Ah Holy Jesus:

1. Throughout these forty days you prayed and fasted,
To fulfill God's words written in the scriptures.
And won o'er tribulation when tested
Strong and pure

2. Help me repent my sins, Your way to keep,
Rememb'ring frailty, stopping my transgressions.
You are my shepherd, I am your weak sheep.
Hear me when I pray.

3. Thank-you for your patience, mercy and love,
You are the Master, Yours is high devotion.
When it is time to travel to your kingdom,
Joy be my emotion.

During the month of March we have been transitioning from Marty Haugen's setting of the liturgy to a bilingual setting that includes music by Pablo Sosa. This has given us the opportunity to draw on the instrumental skills of our choir members, including John on accordion, Penny on conga, Anne on maracas and David on claves.

We will be introducing our new choral scholar, Paige Attack, in April and will be looking forward to the return of Katy Waring in the summer. Paige is a student at University of Guelph.

In spite of bad weather that cancelled two of our choir practices in the last month, the choir has been working hard to prepare music for the Lenten season, Holy Week and Easter.

What is the Passover Seder?

The Seder meal is a festive meal.

On Maundy Thursday, when we as a Christian community celebrate the Seder, we acknowledge the Jewish roots of our Eucharistic faith and participate as a community in a feast in the same way Christ presided over the Last Supper with his disciples. In Jesus' day everyone wine and dined with the finest foods. Jesus and his disciples were celebrating a key article of the Jewish faith, the escape of the Israelites from Egypt under the leadership of Moses. God had promised Moses that the Israelites would be delivered from slavery under the Pharaoh and also promised that one day they would have their own land.

The Seder follows a prescribed order of ritual food elements, prayers and readings. The Seder plate contains a shank bone of a lamb symbolic of the Paschal Lamb; the sweet haroset symbolic of the mortar used in building; the bitter herbs (radish slices) to represent the harsh labour of the slaves; the parsley dipped in salt water to symbolize the tears shed by a captive peoples; the roasted eggs symbolic of sacrifice in biblical times and the unleavened matzoh, food for the journey. Sips of wine are drunk as a symbol of joy and God's promise of redemption.

On Maundy Thursday we meet as God's people, listen to the story, share the festive foods and remember God's promises to us. Following the meal (which is eaten in haste) we gather for the washing of hands and feet in service to each other in the name of God's love.

Sunday Church School

Little hands with big hearts - Our Sunday School children have learned lots about the Bible, prayer and Jesus' message of faithful compassion for others each Sunday session. We have read from the Sparks Bible, shared stories, sang songs, have learned the Lord's Prayer and baked muffins for Rosa, our foster child in El Salvador. We have all grown together through these intentional practices and everyone has enjoyed their time downstairs. There is much still to plan for Easter and the end of year Church School Picnic and Service. This will be taking place on June the 9th, 2019 with an outdoor service (pray for great weather!). Please plan on attending our final Sunday Church School that day.

Pancake Supper

What a wonderful time we had at the Pancake Supper. Many thanks to all those who helped with the cooking, the setup and cleanup and making sure all the details were attended to. We expected about 90 folks (thanks to all who signed up) and ended up serving about 110. I had to go out for more pancake mix! As a result of everyone's hard work and generosity, $648 was donated and will be set aside in a fund for youth who may wish to attend CLAY next year in Calgary. Well done everyone.

St. Patrick's Dessert and Card Party

A FUN EVENING AND A SPECIAL VISITOR

The annual St Patrick's Dessert and card party held on March 16 raised approximately $431.00 (towards the Sign), thanks to the hard work of many volunteers.

More than 60 people enjoyed delicious dessert, cards, games, and fellowship...and many won a "treasure" from the large selection of door prizes.

Thanks to ALL who helped, and special thanks to our Pearl, whose determination and courage encouraged us to keep up the tradition.

Announcements

Announcements that are not printed in the bulletin will continue to be made at the end of the Service.

Please remember that there are two services each Sunday at All Saints. If you are making an announcement that is not in the bulletin please arrange to have the announcement read at both services.

We want everyone to feel included.

Thank you.

New Church Sign

The Sign Team has looked into purchasing a new sign for All Saints, which will be located along Silvercreek, near the entrance to the church driveway. This will increase our visibility in the community so that we are not such a well-kept secret. We have been looking at a sign that would incorporate the church name, along with a digital portion that could post a message or events at the church (such as Christmas Services or the Cookie Walk).

Our goal is to raise $14,000.00 for the sign with the remaining cost matched by the Olgive bequest monies. We will raise funds until the end of June 2019, with progress being posted on the wall in the parlour. Should the funds be raised

Save the Date!

Heads up to mark your calendars now please.

The next Saturday Night Supper is June 29.

We will be serving lasagna for dinner so keep your eyes peeled for sales, and stock your freezer before June 29th. All the important details will be in the June Connections, so stay tuned.

Thank you,
Val Webb and Robin Smart

sooner, the project can start earlier. We hope to have the sign installed by the end of summer.

How can you get involved? It is easy!

- 1) Simply write a cheque made out to All Saints Church.
- 2) Post-date the cheque to June 30, 2019
- 3) Write the word "sign" on the notation line at the bottom left of your cheque.
- 4) Put it in one of your regular offering envelopes or a plain envelope and clearly mark the outside of the envelope with "sign".
- 5) Place your donation on the offering plate any Sunday.

Please..... do not add your sign donation to your regular Sunday offering. Please make out a separate cheque as all money for the sign will be held until all donations are received.

~~~~Donations will receive a tax receipt for Income Tax purposes.~~~

Nominations for Members of Congregational Council

Generally, four new members of the Congregational Council are elected at each Annual Congregational/Vestry Meeting which is usually held on the first Sunday of May each year. To ensure the process is open, we are again requesting nominations for these four positions. Nominations can be for someone else, with their consent, or one can nominate themselves.

Who is eligible to be on the Congregational Council?

Any voting member of All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church is eligible. Voting members are those baptized members who have, for at least six months preceding the holding of a Vestry/Annual meeting, been involved with the congregation through worship, fellowship and financial support, and have attained the age of 15 years.

Who is selected to be on the Congregational Council?

The names of those people who agree to be on Council (nominations) are put forward to the Congregation at the Annual Meeting in May. A vote is then taken to select the four required each year.

What do the members of the Congregational Council do?

This is a very good question! First and foremost, the members act on behalf of the Congregation. They represent the congregation and have a general oversight of the life and activities of the church ensuring that everything is done in accordance with the Word of God and the faith practice of the ACC and the ELCIC. Most of the Council serve in a liaison or communication position to other teams and committees in the church which can generally handled through email. Council members also assist in counting offerings usually 4 times per year with the assistance of another experienced counter. Those in an executive position have additional duties.

How much time is involved?

Reading the above, one might assume a considerable time is required. In reality, actual time required can be less than serving the church in other capacities. A member of Council generally serves for three years. Meetings are held once per month except in the summertime and December. Meetings usually include a brief devotional time, followed by a meeting that lasts about two hours. Preparation for meetings include reading the previous minutes, reports from the various committees, and contemplating items on the agenda. The chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary have additional duties.

I Peter 4:10 Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.

Remember, what Jesus commissioned us to do is what He demonstrated. Involvement in the ministry of All Saints as a Council member can spiritually be a life giving experience.

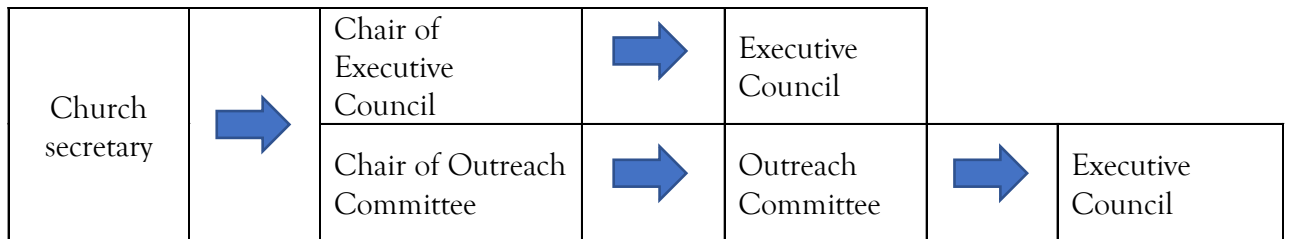

Nominations can be submitted to Brian Janzen (Box 29 or bjanzen33@gmail.com) or by speaking to any one of the present Council members.

Guidelines for Outreach and Fundraising Activities

All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church, Guelph

To request new fundraising events or outreach activities:

- Send a request by email or letter to the church.
- The Administrative Assistant will forward all requests to the chairs of the executive council and the outreach committee, and will copy the pastor or priest.
- If the request is for a fundraising event, the executive chair will present it to the executive at the next meeting, or will share it by email if time-sensitive.
- If the request is for a new outreach activity, the outreach chair will share the information with the outreach committee. The committee will recommend to the executive council to support or decline the request, and will explain the reasons for their recommendation.

Fundraising

- The church will permit fundraising promotion and activities for charities supported by All Saints, the Evangelical Church of Canada, or the Anglican Church in Canada.
- Church members may use the coffee hour to raise funds for other charities, without requesting permission in advance. (Council will take note of any concerns, and re-assess this policy after one year.)
- Council welcomes church members to promote fundraising activities for outside organizations on the bulletin board and in the church newsletter, but not through announcements in church.

Outreach

- Organizers of outreach activities will need to request any minor changes to booking details through the church secretary, who will consult with the executive council.
- Organizers of outreach activities that have not been approved may promote these activities through the bulletin board and the church newsletter, but not through announcements in church.

Message from the Zytner's to the Soehner's, while in Germany

Excerpts Shared with Permission

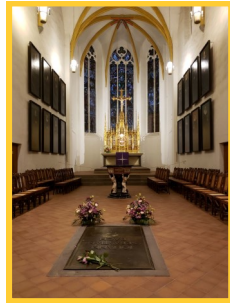

Date: Sun, 17 Mar 2019 — Hello from Germany:

We are home again after two nights away. I had a business meeting in Leipzig at the Federal Environmental Research Centre, UFZ Friday morning. This Centre is also directly connected to the Universität Leipzig. I wrote this long..... email as I had time on the almost 6 h ride home. Things were fresh in my mind and interesting (at least to Linda and I) so I decided to share.

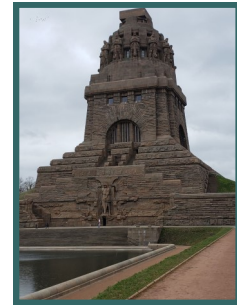

Leipzig: Leipzig was surprisingly nice as we were never here before. Did most of our sightseeing Thursday evening. Many building survived the war as bombing was light in the city. Following are some of the pictures.

Largest train station in Europe. Reason being it served two states. Prussia and Saxony. Hence the two entrances, even though not adequately seen on the picture.

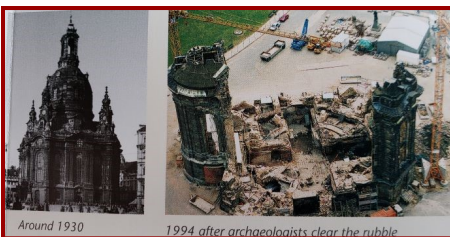

← Johann Sebastian Bach's grave in St. Thomas Church. He died in Leipzig on July 28th, 1750. Who knew. At least not this baseball - golf - hockey guy. The St. Thomas Church Choir started singing here in 1212.

↗ From a historical perspective and history buff, we got to visit the place Napoleon was stopped in 1813. Called the Monument to the Battle of Nations, where several countries including Russia, Prussia, Austria and Sweden faced off against Napoleon. He lost and was forced to retreat.

Dresden

Late Friday afternoon we went onto Dresden. I was there once post reunification in 1998 and Linda was not. When I was there in 1998, they were 5 years into rebuilding the Frauenkirche, which took 13 years to finish using modern technology using the original plans. What is interesting about the Frauenkirche is that it would have survived the war if the church had taken the advise of an engineer, who said to brick the windows closed. This did not happen, allowing the phosphorus incendiary materials to get into the church. The resulting high heat from the burning pews caused the sandstone to spall apart. I should note that the foundation walls were 4 m thick, with the top two domes almost 1 m each. The next interesting thing was that the East German government allowed the ruins to remain in one spot instead of being hauled away. Remember, they were anti-religion. After reunification, 20 prominent citizens of Dresden decided to raise money to rebuild. They collected about 70% of 160 million Euros needed from worldwide donations. When they started to rebuild, the archaeologists first went in see what they could find. The interesting thing I remember when first there in 1998, there was nothing built around the Frauenkirche. It was just empty space. Private investors have come to build new buildings using the original plans. As a civil engineer all quite impressive. It was neat to spend all day Saturday in Dresden, even though our tour guide said you need weeks to see everything that Dresden has to offer.

Shows what church looked like when they started reconstruction

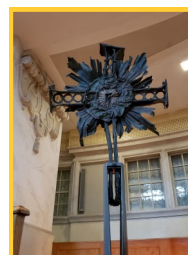

Evening shot of Frauenkirche with Martin Luther

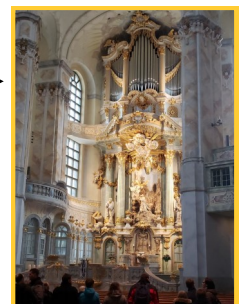

← Picture looking down from inside the double dome

Original cross from the top of the building. The fire melted it into the current condition.

→ Our tour guide said, it does not look like a typical Lutheran Church

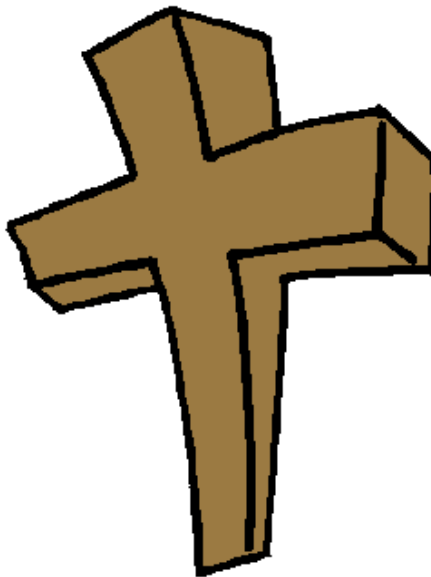

← For the Lutherans reading, a picture of Frederick Wise, who provided sanctuary to Luther after he posted his 95 Theses.

Till next time. RGZ
