From the Pastor's Study

Dear Members and Friends of All Saints:

I like it when our Christian calendar falls out of sync with the cultural calendar around us. This happens each year with Christmas. It helps me to distinguish between the “Christian Christmas” and the “Cultural Christmas.”

The Cultural Christmas begins sometime in early November.
Some say that it begins after Halloween when all the decorations in the stores change from orange and black to red, green, and white. For others, it begins following

Remembrance Day.
For others still, it follows American Thanksgiving. It runs until late December.
For many of our friends and neighbours, the Cultural Christmas is over by December 26.
For others, it extends to New Years Eve, but certainly no longer.

The themes of the Cultural Christmas
include lovely images like: cold, crisp, starry nights;
families reuniting for the holidays;
memories of happy Christmases past; and it may include holiday film favourites like “The Sound of Music,” “A Christmas Carol” (or some version of Scrooge), or “It’s A Wonderful Life.”

We all participate in the rituals and ceremonies of the Cultural Christmas because, well, we live in this culture. It’s not wrong or bad to do so. The Cultural Christmas
engenders wonderful feelings of warmth, generosity, kindness, and joy – all beautiful things!

As followers of Jesus, it is good to remember that, although related and similar, the Cultural Christmas and the Christian Christmas are not quite the same thing. One word best captures the theme of

Pastor's Study Continued...

Christmas: Incarnation. As the Gospel According to John puts it: "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth." (John 1:14) Or, as the angel of the Lord explained to Mary's husband Joseph, Jesus' birth would be as was spoken by the prophet Isaiah, "Look, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means 'God is with us.'" (Matthew 1:23)

The Christian Christmas and the Cultural Christmas fall out of sync, not only thematically, but on the calendar as well. Christmas begins for us on December 25 (or, following the example of the Jewish form of time keeping, it can begin at sundown on the previous day, making our Christmas Eve celebrations fully in keeping with the Christian calendar) and extends a full 12 days until Epiphany on January 6.

And so, I wish you all the joys that the Cultural Christmas has to offer, but even more I wish you all the blessings of the Christian Christmas that remind us that, through the birth, life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth, God is indeed with us today and every day!

Merry Christmas!
Pastor Brian

Memorial Fund

Hello everyone, I wanted to take this opportunity to share a short note regarding the Memorial Fund at All Saints and how it has enhanced the atmosphere of the church over the years.

The fund was started over 40 years ago, as a means for both members and non members to donate money to the church in memory of a loved one. All donations made to the fund are recorded in the Memorial book, which is in the glass case near the mailboxes in the Narthex. Members should feel free to lift the glass lid and look through the book at any time.

There is also a current Memorial board that hangs above the case, as well as an older board, which hangs near the bottom of the stairs.

The committee has criteria for names to be engraved on the board. The name of a loved one will be inscribed on the Memorial board if the contributions to the fund is $500 or more with one exception. That exception is that the person being remembered was a long time contributing member of service to the church.

Over the years, the Memorial fund has provided many gifts to the congregation. This list includes, but is not limited to, the defibrillator in the Narthex, funds toward the new furnace, a new Paschal Candle and follower and LED lighting. The fund has always been supportive of music at All Saints. Early on, Memorial funds were donated by members for the organ when the building was new. In recent years, it helped provided new songbooks for the choir, speakers/cables, handheld microphones and soloists who have enhanced our worship. The funds were also used for the resilvering of the Communion glass trays.

Additionally, the beautiful stained glass window mounted above the Ascending Christ figure, both designed by Hanna Boos, was a substantial project that the Memorial fund financed. I think we can all agree that it is a stunning enhancement to our worship space.

I hope that this has provided some helpful insight into where these various additions around the church have come from over the years. It is wonderful that donations made in memory of our loved ones has contributed to these enhancements and made our place of worship so special.

Please join us for our Wedding Ceremony on January 20, 2024 at All Saints Church at 3:00 pm

We would love to have as many of our church family attend our wedding ceremony as possible to help us celebrate.

If you are unable to attend that day, we will send a link for the recorded ceremony at a later date.

Also, please mark your calendar for June 15, 2024 for our Open House and Garden Party, details to follow.

Jan Nielsen and Dennis Kunze

Let all that you do be done in love.

1 Corinthians 16:14

We Are All Images of God

Joan Chittister, Murshid Saadi Shakur Chishti, and Rabbi Arthur Waskow, writing from their traditions of Christianity, Islam, and Judaism, believe we all share equally in God’s image, even amid our joint history of violence.

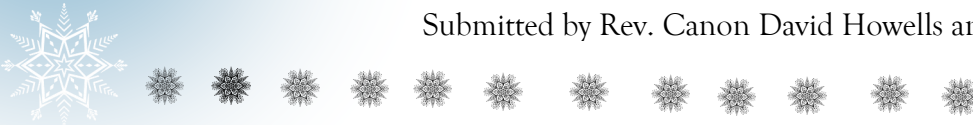

All our traditions—Jewish, Christian, and Muslim—teach that the human race and every human being are created in the image of God. Rabbinic midrash says that when Caesar puts his image on a coin, each coin comes out identical—but that when the One who is beyond all rulers puts the divine image on the coin of every human being, each “coin” comes out unique....

Today, the various Caesars of our planet insist that we must fit into a single mold, the mold of uniformity and death.... The pain of these deaths and of this destruction drives some of the children of Hagar, through Ishmael, and some of the children of Sarah, through Isaac, to forget that they are all children of Abraham. That we are all children of Noah and his wife, Naamah, who suffered through the danger that human violence imposes on all who dwell on our planet....

If we are to celebrate [the Infinite God], we must in the same breath resist the idolatrous Caesars who think to impose upon us their murders. In our banks, our kindergartens, our picket lines and voting booths, as we worship in our graceful sacred buildings and in our quiet forests and on our frenzied streets, through the seasons of our joy and of our sorrow—in all these, we must remember to welcome ourselves, each other, and all who begin as strangers into the Tent that is open to all. Anglican Diocese of Niagara Synod

Submitted by Anne Stuart

Pastor Brian Wilker, Earlby Wakefield, and Anne Stuart attended this year’s synod meeting for the Anglican Diocese of Niagara, held virtually on November 4.

In her charge to Synod, which centered on the Parable of the Talents found in Matthew 25:14-30, Bishop Susan Bell reminded congregations that “God calls us to engage in the risk of faith; to become more and more like Christ and to live into the health and diversity of the mixed ecology – mission and tradition – the new and ancient Church.”

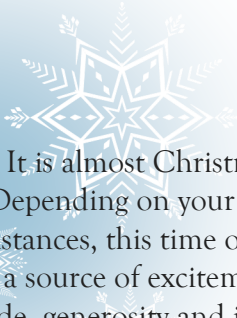

We learned about positive endeavours across the diocese, including the Migrant Workers Program, and plans for a diocesan capital campaign. You will find a summary on the diocesan website, at <https://niagaraanglican.ca/news/highlights-from-the-149th-synod-of-the-diocese-of-niagara>

Bishop Bell encouraged congregations to “steward and safeguard God’s creation” by getting involved in The Communion Forest initiative. The Greening Committee at All Saints is watching for updates from Climate Justice Niagara on the initiative at <https://www.comunionforest.org/getstarted/how-to-get-started-on-your-communion-forest-activity/>

Ramblings from Parish Care

Well... It is almost Christmas Day. Depending on your circumstances, this time of year can be a source of excitement, gratitude, generosity and joy, or be filled with mixed emotions, stress, loneliness and sadness. The image of the perfect holiday permeates our culture, which we then compare ourselves to, and causes feelings of obligation, perhaps even perfection. Trying to please everyone around us and keep with tradition can be frustrating.

It is a time too of “excesses”: over-eating, over-spending, over-drinking, over-indulgence. The compulsory consumerism and mandatory merriment can have a negative impact on our budgets and health, which some of us cannot afford. Remember it is OK to say “no”.

Sometimes holiday traditions and gatherings can create tensions, discomfort and perhaps even conflict. Be aware that only you can do what makes you happy, which may result in stepping outside to take a “break”, declining an invitation or leaving early.

More than 1 in 10 Canadians feel lonely during the holidays. Surprisingly, you can be in a room full of people and feel loneliness. This is especially so if you have grown apart, lost someone special, or you moved recently. And then there is being alone on Christmas Day. Try to find another person who is in the same circumstances and invite them over for a visit. It doesn't have to be complicated with a big turkey dinner, but as simple as a “coffee”....together. If all else fails, put on “A Charlie Brown Christmas” and listen to Linus tell the Christmas story from Luke.

My friend's Charlie Brown Christmas tree

Have a blessed, peaceful and above all, HAPPY times over the next few weeks. Don't beat yourself up if something doesn't turn out the way you expected it. Be kind and forgive yourself. You tried your best. Usually “disasters” or those things we stress about most, work out OK in the end. Sometimes we look back and can even laugh at these. And as for the New Year, may the good Lord bless and keep you in his grace. May 2024 bring you peace, good health and lots of good memories.

The Canadian Dental Care Plan (CDCP)

Some brave soul recently asked me for information on the new “Canadian Dental Care Plan” that the Federal Government has announced in December this year. I will do my best to outline the highlights.

First of all, the plan is being rolled out in stages according to age. Right now the plan exists for children under the age of 12 as a Child Dental Benefit. It is intended for those who do not have access to existing dental insurance. This plan will continue until June 30, 2024 when the new plan kicks in for children. Dental expenses for these children can be claimed from July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2024.

To qualify for the new CDCP, obviously you must meet all four of the requirements:

1. You have no access to dental insurance: this means either thru employee benefits, a pension plan, family member’s benefits, your spouse /partner benefits, or purchased by you or a family member thru a group or benefit plan..
2. You must have an adjusted family net income of less than $90,000.
2. Be a Canadian resident for tax purposes.
4. Have filed a tax return in the previous year.

For Canadian residents who have access to dental care thru government social programs offered by the province or the federal government, they can still qualify for the CDCP if they meet all the eligibility requirements. Coverage will then be coordinated to ensure no duplication of services, or to avoid gaps in oral health care. Children under the age of 12 whose dental costs are fully paid by another government program with no direct cost to the parent, do not qualify.

Stages of “Rollout” for those eligible to apply:

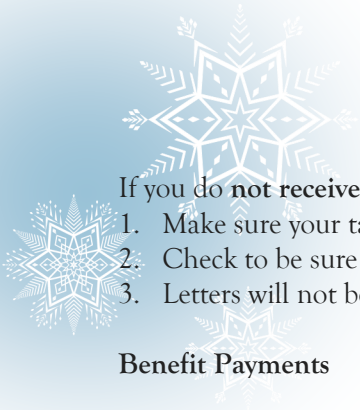

1. If you are over 70, you will receive a letter with instructions on how to apply by phone, providing you are eligible according to age and income.
2. Starting in May 2024, if you are between 65 and 69, and eligible, you can apply online.
3. Adults with a valid Disability Tax Credit certificate and children under 18 can apply starting in June 2024.

Application schedule by age group for those eligible to apply:

- | | | | |
|----------------------|---------------|--|-----------|
| 1. Seniors 87 and up | December 2023 | 6. Adults with valid Disability Tax. | June 2024 |
| 2. Seniors 77-86 | January 2024 | 7. Children under 18 | June 2024 |
| 3. Seniors 72-76 | February 2024 | 8. All remaining eligible Canadian residents | 2025 |
| 4. Seniors 70-71 | March 2024 | | |
| 5. Seniors 65-69 | May 2024 | | |

Letters of application will be mailed out in the above months to those eligible. These letters will include a personalized application code and instructions on how to apply. Follow the instructions in the letter to apply by phone. Then wait for Service Canada to issue a letter confirming that you were successful and you qualify. After that you will receive a welcome package from Sun Life, telling you when you can start to get care, your member card and other information on the CDCP. After your start date, when booking an appointment with your oral care provider, make sure they have enrolled in the CDCP to avoid any out of pocket expenses. After May 2024 you will be able to apply online. Sun Life is the contracted service provider who manages the program for the Government of Canada. Once you have applied and your eligibility is confirmed, your information then will be shared with Sun Life, who will enroll you in the CDCP. Sun Life will then send you a welcome package which will include information on the Plan, your member card and the date your coverage starts.

If you do not receive a letter:

1. Make sure your taxes for 2022 are filed
2. Check to be sure your address is correct on your tax form
3. Letters will not be sent to those with an adjusted family net income above the qualifying limit of $90,000.

Benefit Payments

These are administered by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA)

1. Adult and senior benefits are paid according to income: under $70,000 you get 100% of your costs covered; between $70,000 and 79,999 it is reduced to 60%; while with $80,000-89,999 family income, reimbursement is adjusted to 40%.
2. I believe your dental care costs are submitted directly to Sun Life by your care provider. However if you fall into the income categories where only a percentage is paid by the plan, you will be responsible to pay the care provider the difference.

Coverage

Services covered are somewhat basic but reasonably extensive; things like cleaning, extractions, root canal, fillings, xrays, and dentures. Some services will not be available until the fall of 2024 but you will be updated as more services become available.

By this time next year, we will all have happy, big white smiles, healthy gums and teeth.
Hope this helps.

All the best in 2024

Future Parish Care Workshops

I have decided to go back to consistent dates each month as we did last year. So put the third Tuesday afternoon on your calendar and set aside the time to enjoy some great topics and speakers.

What I am working on for January and February is having K9 Partners come to talk about service animals and how they are a vital part of someone's care. What "jobs" can they do to help? How are they trained? What animals are best suited to different needs?

I am also working to have a video presentation by Telus on "Staying Safe in a Digital World". One other thought is having the organization, "Heart and Stroke", speak to us on the process involving heart disease and stroke. Or, life saving measures that we can all take, to save a life when we come upon a critical situation.

Stay tuned!

Mary Guse Giving Tree—December 5, 2023

Today, I had pleasure of sorting and handing over the gifts from the Mary Guse Giving Tree to the four charities All Saints support. I am humbled every year as I greet each group who come to the church to collect the donations.

The congregations generosity is so appreciated. Women In Crisis, Adopt A Family, Michael House and Salvation Army are always amazed of the congregations kindness. Many thanks were given and I am pleased to share the heartfelt thanks from these charities to every one who donated.

Today Pearl brought me a beautiful Christmas Card and a box of Pot of Gold chocolates. I will show Orland the card and he will enjoy a chocolate the next time I visit him.

He is doing very well at St. Joseph's Health Centre. Physio is extensive and is helping him move by himself.

Thank you for your prayers and best wishes. They are greatly appreciated.

Merry Christmas

Last Day for 2023 Offerings / Donations

The last day to get your 2023 donation to the church for tax receipt purposes is Sunday, December 31.

There are four ways you can donate:

1. Drop off: you can drop your donation on the offering plate during worship
2. E-Transfer: you can send an e-transfer to allsaints@allsaintsguelph.ca
3. PAR: For a more consistent donation throughout the year, you can set up a regular automatic withdrawal through the Pre-Authorized Remittance (PAR) (PAD) program. Contact Janet Weigel jweigel0220@rogers.com

Chalmers Gift Bag Campaign 2023

The biggest, hugest, most enormous THANK YOU to all the folks who made this year's Chalmers Christmas Bag Campaign another success.

The final count for bags was 50!

It truly takes a village from those who print, speak, publish or share about the campaign, those who fill bags, those who get the bags to Chalmers and those who say prayers for the workers and the receivers.

Chalmers guests appreciate the practical presents in the bags but our prayers are also a blessing to them.

Big shout out to Laura F. and Laura B. for the delivery to Chalmers this year.

Please start saving reuseable bags to be stuffed next year – and I look forward to sharing another success story next year.

Respectfully submitted.
Robin Smart

Silvercreek Community Market 2023 Wrap Up

It has been another amazing year for the Silvercreek Community Market. We have one more Market on December 21 and we have already served 6,500 people this year. That is more than a thousand people over last year. We are registering new families every week, so we don't see those numbers dropping any time soon.

We have been extremely fortunate in the financial support from Community partners/friends. We would not have been able to operate so successfully without them! We would like to thank the Order of the Eastern Star for their faith in our outreach ministry and the $14,000 they have donated to the Market in 2023. Thank you!

We were also able to get grants from the Eastern Synod ($5,000) and ELFEC ($2,000) for next year's Market. We have also been given another Eastern Synod grant for 2024. Again, this year the Johanniter Humanitarian Group has given us another generous donation ($2,000). Thank you! Last but not least, our amazing congregation gives time, money and food to this important outreach ministry. We could not do this without all of you!

We have also been supported by St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church throughout the year with Food Drives. There is another one coming up in December. We often get a couple of hundred dollars in donations as well which we use to top up non-perishable items we are low on. Capital Paving held their Christmas party and collected 530 pounds of food for us!

We also did a food drive at Thanksgiving for the partners who meet in the building. That resulted in a $200 donation and several bins filled with non-perishables. We thank them for their support!

We have some more exciting donation news to share but you will need to wait until next month to read about it!

Finally, a warm hug to all our Market volunteers, especially Julianna Stephens who does all the volunteer management and the Outreach Team (Julianna, Ron and Val Webb, Sue Wakefield, and Jane Cotter) who are my support!

Thank you. ❤️

Learning Circle

After the hustle and bustle of the holidays, you might find yourself in a quiet moment with nothing to do. Consider checking out the University of Alberta's Indigenous Canada Study course. The course is free and available online! There was an article in the most recent Canadian Lutheran, and there has been discussion in the Anglican Journal, about our need, as a society, to look at issues of Racial Justice, and for our Indigenous brothers and sisters, to meet the recommendations in the Truth and Reconciliation Report about education. The materials in the online course are very well done and easily accessible. Then join with others in the Eastern Synod for a monthly discussion. Hope to see you there on January 15 at 7 pm. You must register with the Synod office to be added to the list of name that will get a Zoom link emailed to them.

The Eastern Synod Circle for Reconciliation and Justice invites you to explore, discover and discuss the different histories and contemporary perspectives of Indigenous peoples living in Canada

Pastor Ronnie Smith of Peace Lutheran, Pickering ON will lead a monthly online forum and discussion covering 12 modules of the online course — Indigenous Canada Study — created by the Faculty of Native Studies, University of Alberta. Registration stays open all year long. Do not hesitate to join in the conversation whenever you are ready.

If you have questions about this course or the program of study please contact Pastor Smith at peace.lutheran.plc@gmail.com

A Tribute To Aboriginal Women, by Leah Dorian

Register for this free course at <https://www.coursera.org/learn/indigenous-canada> Complete the first module in advance, and join us on Jan 15, 2023 at 7 p.m. EST.

Indigenous Canada is a 12-lesson Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) from the Faculty of Native Studies that explores the different histories and contemporary perspectives of Indigenous peoples living in Canada. From an Indigenous perspective, this course explores complex experiences Indigenous peoples face today from a historical and critical perspective highlighting national and local Indigenous-settler relations. Topics for the 12 lessons include the fur trade and other exchange relationships, land claims and environmental impacts, legal systems and rights, political conflicts and alliances, Indigenous political activism, and contemporary Indigenous life, art and its expressions. The course is free to sign up for, and one module will be covered each month.

Greetings from the Children's Reading Room

1,008 books were distributed in November!

We got colourful last month with a super fun Paint pARTy fundraiser led by the talented Rae Wright, artist, author, and teacher extraordinaire! Everyone's Nightmare Before Christmas painting had a slight touch of personality. What a blast!

We were glad to be back at Book Bash 2023 on Nov 5th at the Guelph Farmers Market! Thank you to the Vocamus Writers Community and all the organizers for accommodating the CRR with so much space to display the children's books! We were delighted that over 80 children went home with a free book that evening!

Thank you to Halwell Mutual for sending three wonderful employees to volunteer at the CRR for two days! What a fantastic way to support family literacy in the community!

Need a gift idea? With every $25 donation to the CRR, you get to select a one-of-a-kind tote bag and fill it with any five books of your choice! It's double the giving! Our totes make great teacher gifts, and we have seasonal designs available!

The CRR is happy to announce two new Book Nooks at St. George's Centre for ESL and Tytler Public School! Also, we are pleased to have made connections and delivered books Guelph Wellington Women in Crisis, Michael House and the Pregnancy to Parenting program! Interested in supporting a local not-for-profit? Our Sponsorship Package offers many opportunities to make a meaningful impact! Please click the link to download it.
