Eastern Synod

Dear Little Saints-
Welcome from all the Big Saints

*Before the service even starts, you will need to prepare Upcoming is a longish sit and grownups want you there
Instead of wiggling, yawning, sighing
You could be bright new markers trying or putting stickers in your book*

*Or even ..take a little look
Oh joy, cause somebody loves me true
There's juice or sweets or cookies too*

*When you've been good as gold for ever and still the talking lasts forever just dig inside and have a treat
Your Sunday sack is really "sweet"!!!!!!
(and also is a take home treat!)*

We welcome all children to our worship. There is no Sunday Church School at this time. Please ask the ushers for a children's bulletin and/or help them fill a bag with activities and treats from the basket in the narthex.

Communion: All are welcome. Please let an usher know if you need to take Communion in your seat.

Offerings can be left in the trays at the back until the Gathering Song is sung.

No Scents Makes Good Sense. Members have indicated that they suffer discomfort from perfumes, hair sprays, colognes, and after-shave lotions. Please help us provide a scent-free environment.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

O God, in the transfiguration of Jesus you confirmed the mysteries of the faith by the witness of Moses and Elijah, and in the voice from the bright cloud declaring Jesus your beloved, you foreshadowed our adoption as your children. Make us heirs with Christ of your glory, and bring us to enjoy its fullness, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

Choir Anthem — Our Trust Is In The Lord, CJ Hoffman

First Reading: Exodus 24:12-18

At Mount Sinai, Moses experienced the presence of God for forty days and forty nights. The “glory of the LORD” settled on the mountain, and on the seventh day God called out to Moses. On the mountain God gave Moses the stone tablets inscribed with the ten commandments.

¹² The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain and wait there; I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.” ¹³ So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up onto the mountain of God. ¹⁴ To the elders he had said, “Wait here for us, until we come back to you. Look, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.”

¹⁵ Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. ¹⁶ The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. ¹⁷ Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring

Gospel — Matthew 17:1-9

The holy gospel of our Lord according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Lord.

¹ Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. ² And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light.

³ Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.

⁴ Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

⁵ While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!”

⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. ⁷ But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” ⁸ And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

The gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Hymn of the Day— Not Always on the Mount (Tune: Walton)

1. Not always on the mount may we Rapt in the heavenly vision be;
The shores of thought and feeling know
The Spirit's tidal ebb and flow.

2. 'Lord, it is good abiding here,'
We cry, the heavenly presence near;
The vision vanishes, our eyes
Are lifted into vacant skies.

3. Yet hath one such exalted hour
Upon the soul redeeming power,
And its strength through after days
We travel our appointed ways;

4. Till all the lowly vale grows bright,
Transfigured in remembered light,
And in untiring souls we bear
The freshness of the upper air.

5. The mount for vision: but below
The paths of daily duty go,
And nobler life therein shall own
The pattern on the mountain shown.

Prayers

As God's beloved children, let us pray that the light of Christ shine on the nations, the church, and all those in need.

Holy God, you call your Church to be the body of Christ, shining with your light in every place and time. Strengthen all who serve in your name. Help us listen, as the disciples did, to Jesus your beloved, and be changed by what we hear. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Creator of light and life, the whole earth is your holy mountain. Open our eyes to the beauty of what you have made and our hearts to its suffering. Teach us to cherish and protect your creation so that all living things may flourish in your love. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

God of justice and peace, your light shines even in the darkest places. We pray for nations torn by war, violence, or oppression. Bring wisdom to leaders, courage to peacemakers, and hope to those who live amid fear. Let your transforming light reveal paths of reconciliation and renewal. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Merciful God, Jesus' face shone with the glory of your presence even as he walked toward the cross. Stay close to all who suffer in mind, body, or spirit. Surround them with healing, comfort, and peace, and shine your light through all who care for them. We pray especially for: Anna-Liisa, Bud, Ruth, Werner and Debbie, John and Julianna, Ross and Karen, Ken and Matzi, Andrew, Joan, Alice, Irene, Greg and Mary, Elaine and David, Sue and Earlby, Chris and Joan, Penny and Bill, Marilyn and Sigi, for Grace and Cole and their mother Jennifer, Kathryn, Kelly, Juan and Anita, Bill, Micah, Rosemary, and those we name before you in our hearts. (silence...). God, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

God of mercy and compassion, we pray for the people of Tumbler Ridge, British Columbia in the wake of this week's terrible act of violence. We pray for all whose lives have been shattered by grief, fear, and loss. Surround the families and friends of the victims with your comfort; bring healing to those who are wounded in body or spirit; and strengthen the first responders with care and courage. In a world so often torn by anger and despair, make us instruments of your peace. May your light shine in the darkness and your love guide all communities toward safety, healing, and peace. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Loving God, you have called us together as this family of faith. Strengthen us to listen for your voice, to care for one another, and to serve our neighbours with joy and compassion. May your light guide All Saints to reflect your glory in all we do. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

God of glory, we give thanks for all the saints, those remembered and those known only to you, who now dwell in your light. As we follow in their footsteps, keep us faithful until we too behold the brightness of your face and share forever in your glory. God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Gathered into your shining presence, O God, we entrust all our prayers to you, through Jesus Christ our Saviour.
Amen.

Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you all!
And also with you.

Eucharistic Prayer

Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life:
Blessed are you for the birth of creation.
Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light.
Blessed are you for your promise to your people.
Blessed are you in the prophets' hopes and dreams.
Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will.
Blessed are you for Christ Jesus,
the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
 and gave it for all to drink, saying:
 This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is ris - en. Christ will come a - gain.

With this bread and cup
 we remember your Word dwelling among us, full of grace and truth.
 We remember our new birth in his death and resurrection.
 We look with hope for his coming.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Holy God, we long for your Spirit.
 Come among us.
 Bless this meal.
 May your Word take flesh in us.
 Awaken your people.
 Fill us with your light.
 Bring the gift of peace on earth.
Come, Holy Spirit.

All praise and glory are yours,
 Holy One of Israel,
 Word of God incarnate,
 Power of the Most High,
 one God, now and forever.

A - men, a - men. A - men, a - men.

Invitation to Communion

We break this bread to share in the light that has come into the world.
We who walk in darkness have seen a great light. May Christ, the Light of the world, shine in our hearts forever.

God is now in flesh appearing.
 Come to the feast of joy!
Thanks be to God!

Free to Read: This year we are again supporting the Guelph Tool Library Book Sale in support of the Books for Inmates Program, a program that supports literacy programs in correctional facilities across Southwestern Ontario. One of the challenges for the Books for Inmates Program is to acquire the necessary books for literacy programs. Desired books, such as technical books and books in other languages, are typically not donated. The book sale hopes to sell those books that are frequently donated, such as best sellers and detective stories, and use the proceeds to purchase the desired books.

The Guelph Tool Library is running the Free to Read Book Sale to celebrate World Book Day on Saturday April 25, 2026 from 10 am until 3 pm. The sale will be in the main concourse of the Old Quebec Street Shoppes and will feature over 10,000 books! We are collecting donations of books starting Monday February 9 until Wednesday April 22, 2026. This is a great opportunity to consider what books in your home are ready to find their next ‘forever home’! (Please – no encyclopedias!) Thank you.

House of Commons Petition e-7207:
<https://www.ourcommons.ca/petitions/en/Petition/Details?Petition=e-7027>

February 16, 2026 is the deadline to sign this petition. Please share this widely.

Aromantic Spectrum Awareness Week is a week meant to spread awareness and acceptance of aromantic spectrum identities and challenges. Starting in 2015 it occurs on the first full week (starting Sunday) following Valentine’s Day; it began in large part as a way for those in the aromantic community who had difficulty finding space for their experiences in such a universally romanticized event to come together and celebrate their own unique experiences.

it's cold out there
#cnoy

Coldest Night of the Year is a simple, meaningful way for churches to come together in visible witness to our shared call to care for those experiencing hurt, hunger, and homelessness in our community. By forming a team and walking alongside others, we demonstrate that no one is meant to face hardship alone. All funds raised through the Guelph walk stay right here in our city, directly supporting Hope House's vital work. As people of faith, this is a powerful opportunity to stand alongside our most vulnerable neighbours while strengthening the bonds of community that make Guelph such a compassionate place to live.

St. George's will again be fielding teams for both the 2 km and 5 km walks, and we would be delighted to walk alongside members of other faith communities. Participation can be as simple as forming a small team or encouraging a few members/parishioners to join an existing one. Every step and every dollar truly makes a difference.

Registration is easy at <https://cnoy.org/location/guelph>. Resources are available to support fundraising, and the event itself is family-friendly, well organized, and a lot of fun!

Thank you for the many ways you already serve our community. I hope you will prayerfully consider joining us for this year's Coldest Night of the Year. When we show up together, we offer hope, warmth, and solidarity to those who need it most.

In faith,
