need to prepare*

Upcoming is a longish sit and grownups want you there

or putting stickers in your book*

*Or even ..take a little look Oh joy, cause somebody loves me true
There's juice or sweets or cookies too*

*When you've been good as gold for ever and still the talking lasts forever
just dig inside and have a treat
Your Sunday sack is really "sweet"!!!!!!
(and also is a take home treat!)*

Choir Anthem—Hail to the Lord's Anointed,
arr. Leonhart Schroeter

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6

Daunted by many challenges upon their return to Jerusalem from exile, the prophet affirms God's favour upon Israel and the significance of their mission to the world.

- ¹ Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.
- ² For darkness shall cover the earth and thick darkness the peoples,
but the LORD will arise upon you,
and his glory will appear over you.
- ³ Nations shall come to your light and kings to the brightness of your dawn.
- ⁴ Lift up your eyes and look around;
they all gather together; they come to you;
your sons shall come from far away,
and your daughters shall be carried in their nurses'
arms.
- ⁵ Then you shall see and be radiant;
your heart shall thrill and rejoice,
because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you;
the wealth of the nations shall come to you.
- ⁶ A multitude of camels shall cover you,
the young camels of Midian and Ephah;
all those from Sheba shall come.
They shall bring gold and frankincense
and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Word of God. Word of life.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm: 72:1-7, 10-14 (sung together in unison)

- ¹ Give the king your jus- | tice, O God,
and your righteousness to | the king's son;
² that he may rule your | people righteously
and the | poor with justice;
³ that the mountains may bring prosperity | to the people,
and the | hills, in righteousness.
⁴ Let him defend the needy a- | mong the people,
rescue the poor, and crush | the oppressor. R
- ⁵ May he live as long as the sun and | moon
endure,
from one generation | to another.
⁶ Let him come down like rain upon | the mown
field,
like showers that wa- | ter the earth.
⁷ In his time may the | righteous flourish;
and let there be an abundance of peace till the moon shall | be no more.
¹⁰ May the kings of Tarshish and of the | isles pay tribute,
and the kings of Sheba and Seba | offer gifts. R
- ¹¹ May all kings bow | down before him,
and all the nations | do him service.
¹² For the king delivers the poor who cry out | in distress,
the oppressed, and those who | have no helper.
¹³ He has compassion on the low- | ly and poor,
and preserves the lives | of the needy.
¹⁴ From oppression and violence he re- | deems
their lives,
and precious is their blood | in his sight. R

Second Reading: Ephesians 3:1-12

What had been hidden from previous generations is now made known through the gospel ministry of Paul and others. In Christ both Jews and Gentiles participate in the richness of God's promised salvation.

¹ This is the reason that I, Paul, am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you gentiles, ² for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given me for you ³ and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, ⁴ a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. ⁵ In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: ⁶ that is, the gentiles have become fellow heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

⁷ Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given me by the working of his power. ⁸ Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ ⁹ and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God, who created all things, ¹⁰ so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. ¹¹ This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹² in whom we have access in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Word of God. Word of life.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Repeat alleluia

We have observed his star¹ at its rising,* and have come to¹ worship him.

Gospel — Matthew 2:1-12

The holy gospel of our Lord according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Lord.

¹ In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, magi from the east came to Jerusalem, ² asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star in the east and have come to pay him homage.” ³ When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him, ⁴ and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. ⁵ They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet:

⁶ ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah, for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.’ ”

⁷ Then Herod secretly called for the magi and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. ⁸ Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.”

⁹ When they had heard the king, they set out, and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen in the east, until it stopped over the place where the child was. ¹⁰ When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. ¹¹ On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

¹² And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

The gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Homily

Hymn of the Day— As with Gladness Men of Old 160 (Blue)

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers

Empowered by the news of Christ's birth, let us pray boldly for the church, creation, and all who are in need.

Healer and Restorer, even when we cause relationships to be broken, you bring people together in peace. Soften our hearts, help us forgive quickly, and teach us to care deeply.
Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Creator of life, you breathed energy into the world and filled the skies with light and wonder. Open our eyes to see how the earth is hurting and give us the courage to protect it.
Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Guiding Light, you shine through darkness to show us where to go. Lead those who make decisions – in our churches, in our schools, and in the nations of the world – so that they walk in truth and compassion. We continue to pray for the people of Ukraine, Gaza, and Sudan, as well as for the people of Venezuela, that they would all know peace and dignity. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Defender of the unheard, you lift up those who have been pushed down and feed those who are hungry. Help people find their voices to stand for justice and move those with plenty to give freely. Be close to everyone who needs hope today especially those who desire our prayers: Anna-Liisa, Bud, Ruth, Werner and Debbie, John and Julianna, Ross and Karen, Ken and Matzi, Andrew, Joan, Alice, Irene, Greg and Mary, Elaine and David, Kathryn, Kelly, John and Laura, Juan and Anita, Bill, Micah, Rosemary, and those we name before you in our hearts. (silence...). Surround all who suffer in mind, body, or spirit with your gentle presence. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Keeper of promises, you send people who challenge and inspire us. Teach us to listen – not just to words that bring us comfort, but also to truths that call us to change. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Saviour and Friend, you give us mentors, family, and friends who point us toward you. Thank you for those who've gone before us and those we still miss. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

With the joy of Christ's birth alive in us, we bring these prayers to you, trusting your endless mercy and love, through Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Amen.

May the peace of Christ be with you all!
And also with you.

Eucharistic Prayer

Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life:
Blessed are you for the birth of creation.
Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light.
Blessed are you for your promise to your people.
Blessed are you in the prophets' hopes and dreams.
Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will.
Blessed are you for Christ Jesus,
the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is ris - en. Christ will come a - gain.

With this bread and cup
we remember your Word dwelling among us, full of grace and truth.
We remember our new birth in his death and resurrection.
We look with hope for his coming.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Holy God, we long for your Spirit.
Come among us.
Bless this meal.
May your Word take flesh in us.
Awaken your people.
Fill us with your light.
Bring the gift of peace on earth.
Come, Holy Spirit.

All praise and glory are yours,
Holy One of Israel,
Word of God incarnate,
Power of the Most High,
one God, now and forever.

A - men, a - men. A - men, a - men.

Come to the feast of joy!
Thanks be to God!

Recent legislation in Alberta and Saskatchewan restrict the rights, dignity, and safety of transgender and gender-diverse people. These provinces are using the “notwithstanding clause” to shield this legislation from judicial review, thereby preventing Charter challenges from being heard.
