Greeting

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

For this holy house, and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gracious Lord.

Amen.

Choir Anthem

First Reading: Isaiah 49:1-7

Though exiled in Babylon, Israel understand that she has a great mission.

¹ Listen to me, O coastlands;
pay attention, you peoples from far away!
The LORD called me before I was born;
while I was in my mother's womb he named me.
² He made my mouth like a sharp sword;
in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
he made me a polished arrow;
in his quiver he hid me away.
³ And he said to me, "You are my servant,
Israel, in whom I will be glorified."
⁴ But I said, "I have laboured in vain;
I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;
yet surely my cause is with the LORD and my reward with my God."

⁵ And now the LORD says,
who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him,
and that Israel might be gathered to him,
for I am honored in the sight of the LORD,
and my God has become my strength—
⁶ he says,

“It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel;
I will give you as a light to the nations,
that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.”

⁷Thus says the LORD,
the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One,
to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations,
the slave of rulers, “Kings shall see and stand up;
princes, and they shall prostrate themselves,
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm: Psalm 40:1-11

(Sung responsively between choir and congregation)

I love to do your will, O my God, O my God.

¹ I waited patiently up- | on the LORD,
who stooped to me and | heard my cry.

² The LORD lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the | miry clay,
and set my feet upon a high cliff, making
my | footing sure.

³ The LORD put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise | to our God;
many shall see, and stand in awe, and put their trust | in the LORD.

⁴ Happy are they who trust | in the LORD!
They do not turn to enemies or to those who | follow lies. R

⁵ Great are the wonders you have done, O LORD my God!
In your plans for us, none can be com- | pared with you!
Oh, that I could make them known and tell them! But they are more than | I can count.

⁶ Sacrifice and offering you do | not desire;
you have opened my ears: burnt-offering and sin-offering you have | not required. R

I love to do your will, O my God, O my God.

⁷ And so I said, “Here I | am; I come.
In the scroll of the book it is writ- | ten of me:
⁸ I love to do your will, | O my God;
your law is | deep within me.”

⁹ I proclaimed righteousness in the | great assembly;
I have not restrained my lips, O | LORD, you know.
¹⁰ I have not hidden your righteousness in my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness
and | your deliverance;
I have not concealed your steadfast love and truth from the | great assembly.

¹¹ You are the LORD; do not withhold your compas- | sion
from me;
may your steadfast love and your truth
continually | keep me safe. R

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:1-9

Though God's church in Corinth is a fractious congregation beset with many conflicts, Paul opens this letter by spotlighting the multiple ways God has enriched and sustained its life as part of the divine call into the fellowship of our Lord Jesus Christ.

¹ Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

² To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴ I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵ for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind ⁶ just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you ⁷ so that you are not lacking in any gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸ He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁹ God is faithful, by whom you were called into the partnership of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

| In the | Word was life,* and the life was the light | of all people.

Gospel — John 1:35-42

The holy gospel of our Lord according to John.
Glory to you, O Lord.

³⁵ The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, ³⁶ and as he watched Jesus walk by he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" ³⁷ The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸ When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" ³⁹ He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon.

⁴⁰ One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹ He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). ⁴² He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

The gospel of Christ.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayers

Guided by the light of Christ, who has been made known to the nations, we offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all people in need.

For the church throughout the world, that it would share the message of salvation, peace, and joy to the very ends of the earth, let us pray:

Have mercy, O God.

For all coastlands and waters, for the health of creation, and for our careful and responsible use of God's gifts, let us pray:

Have mercy, O God.

For leaders everywhere – in our communities, our country, and across the globe – for those working for peace in places torn apart by war and conflict such as Ukraine, the Holy Land and Gaza, Sudan, Venezuela, and Iran, and for all people of faith, that compassion and love would grow stronger, let us pray:

Have mercy, O God.

For all who are suffering in mind, body, or spirit, especially: Anna-Liisa, Bud, Ruth, Werner and Debbie, John and Julianna, Ross and Karen, Ken and Matzi, Andrew, Joan, Alice, Irene, Greg and Mary, Elaine and David, Sue and Earlby, Chris and Joan, Kathryn, Kelly, John and Laura, Juan and Anita, Bill, Micah, Rosemary, and those we name before you in our hearts. (silence...), and for those who care for the suffering, that together with God's steadfast love and faithfulness, healing and wholeness would abound, let us pray:

Have mercy, O God.

For this community gathered here, for the spiritual gifts God has given each of us, and for those celebrating important events in their lives, that the Holy Spirit would lead us in our work and on our journeys, let us pray:

Have mercy, O God.

In thanksgiving for the saints who have died in Christ, that the example of their faith would encourage and challenge us in how we live as Christians today, let us pray:

Have mercy, O God.

Radiant God, listen to the prayers of your people, spoken and silent, for the sake of the one who has made his dwelling among us, Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you all!
And also with you.

Eucharistic Prayer

Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life:
Blessed are you for the birth of creation.

Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light.

Blessed are you for your promise to your people.

Blessed are you in the prophets' hopes and dreams.

Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will.

Blessed are you for Christ Jesus,

the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
 This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

With this bread and cup
 we remember your Word dwelling among us, full of grace and truth.
 We remember our new birth in his death and resurrection.
 We look with hope for his coming.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Holy God, we long for your Spirit.
 Come among us.
 Bless this meal.
 May your Word take flesh in us.
 Awaken your people.
 Fill us with your light.
 Bring the gift of peace on earth.
Come, Holy Spirit.

All praise and glory are yours,
 Holy One of Israel,
 Word of God incarnate,
 Power of the Most High,
 one God, now and forever.

A - men, a - men. A - men, a - men.

Lord's Prayer

Our Fa - ther in heav - en, hal - lowed be your name, and de - liv - er us from e - vil. For the king - dom, the pow'r, and the glo - ry are yours, now and for - ev - er. A - men.

Invitation to Communion

We break this bread to share in the light that has come into the world.
We who walk in darkness have seen a great light. May Christ, the Light of the world, shine in our hearts forever.

God is now in flesh appearing.
 Come to the feast of joy!
Thanks be to God!

Recent legislation in Alberta and Saskatchewan restrict the rights, dignity, and safety of transgender and gender-diverse people. These provinces are using the “notwithstanding clause” to shield this legislation from judicial review, thereby preventing Charter challenges from being heard. If you have not already done so, please consider signing a petition in support of human rights – the link is below. Thank you.
