We endeavour to be in right relationship with our Indigenous neighbours.

We strive for racial equity.

Our doors are open to people of uncertain faith or deep faith, from any or no religious tradition.

All are truly welcome.

Dear Little Saints-Welcome from all the Big Saints

Before the service even starts, you will need to prepare

Upcoming is a longish sit and grownups want you there

Instead of wiggling, yawning, sighing

You could be bright new markers trying or putting stickers in your book

*Or even ..take a little look Oh joy, cause somebody loves me true
There's juice or sweets or cookies too*

*When you've been good as gold for ever and still the talking lasts forever just dig inside and have a treat
Your Sunday sack is really "sweet"!!!!!!
(and also is a take home treat!)*

We welcome all children to our worship. There is no Sunday Church School at this time. Please ask the ushers for a children's bulletin and/or help them fill a bag with activities and treats from the basket in the narthex.

Communion: All are welcome. Please let an usher know if you need to take Communion in your seat.

Offerings can be left in the trays at the back until the Gathering Song is sung.

Please take this bulletin home for recycling. Thank you

No Scents Makes Good Sense. Members have indicated that they suffer discomfort from perfumes, hair sprays, colognes, and after-shave lotions. Please help us provide a scent-free environment.

All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church exists on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron / Neutral People. We honour the original ancestors of this land and also offer respect and friendship to our Haudenosaunee, Anishinaabe, Mississauga and Métis neighbours. We give thanks for the First Peoples and all who have cared for the land and made it possible for us to dwell and do ministry on this land, and we commit ourselves to walk in right relations with one another. Today we acknowledge the Sacred Teaching of Bravery - to face life with courage, make positive choices and defend what is right for ourselves, our families, and our communities.

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! ³ We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, ⁴ but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, ⁵ beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; ⁶ by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, ⁷ truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; ⁸ in honour and dishonour, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; ⁹ as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; ¹⁰ as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich;
 as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

¹¹ We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. ¹² There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. ¹³ In return—I speak as to children—open wide your hearts also.

Word of God. Word of life.
Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 6:1-13

Paul and his fellow workers experience great hardships and even rejection while carrying out their missionary work. Nevertheless, Paul continuously proclaims that God has not rejected us but is graciously working for our salvation.

¹ As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. ² For he says, “At an acceptable time I have listened to you,
 and on a day of salvation I have helped you.”

Gospel Acclamation (sung twice)

Congregation:

Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia! Repeat optional

Gospel Reading – Mark 4:35-41

The holy gospel according to Mark.
Glory to you, O Lord.

³⁵ When evening had come, [Jesus said to the disciples,] “Let us go across to the other side.” ³⁶ And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. ³⁷ A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. ³⁸ But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” ³⁹ He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. ⁴⁰ He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?” ⁴¹ And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

The gospel of Christ.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The following persons have been elected by the congregation to serve on Church Council, and are asked to come forward as their names are read:

Brian Janzen: Chair
Deborah Szymanski-Potts: Vice Chair
Janet Weigel: Secretary
Chris Heany: Finance

Additionally, the following are appointed to offices in the congregation, and are also asked to come forward:

Suzanne Worthen: Treasurer
Sandy Christie: Assistant Treasurer
Michele Altermann: Envelope Secretary

St. Paul writes: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit gives them. There are different ways of serving, but the same Lord is served. There are different abilities to perform service, but the same God gives to everyone ability for particular service. The Spirit’s presence is shown in some way in each person, for the good of all. (1 Cor. 12:4-7)

Friends, you are to see that the words and deeds of this household of faith reflect the one in whose name we gather. You are to work together with all the people of All Saints to see that the worship and work of Christ are done in this congregation.

You are to be diligent in your specific area of serving, that the One who empowers you is glorified.

You are to be examples of faith active in love, to help maintain the life and harmony of our community.

On behalf of your sisters and brothers in Christ, I ask you:
Do you accept the duties of the offices to which you have been elected and appointed?

R: Yes, by the help of God.

Please stand

People of God, will you support these, your elected and appointed leaders, and will you share in the mutual ministry that Christ has given to all the baptized?

Yes, by the help of God.

I now declare you installed as officers and council members of this congregation. God bless you through the Holy Spirit, that you may prove faithful servants of Christ. Amen

Hymn How Clear Is Our Vocation, Lord
580 (Red) verses 1 and 4 only

1. How clear is our vocation, Lord, when once we heed your call to live according to your word and daily learn, refreshed, restored, that you are Lord of all,
and will not let us fall.
4. In what you give us, Lord, to do,
together or alone,
in old routines or ventures new,
may we not cease to look to you,
the cross you hung upon,
all you endeavored done.

Prayers

We come before the triune God to pray for our communities, ourselves, and our world.

Equip your faithful people to approach this world with a sense of wonder. Make your church a safe place to explore big questions, troubling doubts, and honest laments. Humble our hearts to repent of the ways that communities of faith have inflicted pain or trauma. We pray today for the bishop, people, and clergy of the Diocese of Athabasca, and for Lutheran and Anglican summer camp ministries throughout the country. Merciful God, receive our prayer.

You spoke creation into order from the chaos of the swirling deep. May your name be praised by rivers and seas, wetlands and waterfalls. Secure clean water for all people and protect water sources from contamination or exploitation. Merciful God,
receive our prayer.

Amid whirlwinds of division, violence, and conflict, remind us again that you are as steadfast as the foundations of the earth. Rejuvenate peacemakers, advocates, and community organizers when they feel weary in their work, especially Ukrainians and Russians, Palestinians and Israelis who are striving for peace in their broken lands. Merciful God,
receive our prayer.

Deliver your people from their distress, O God. We lift before you all who are sick or struggling. Grant consolation and peace to all who live with chronic, terminal, or persistent illness. In times of affliction or hardship, sustain us in faith. We pray especially for those who desire our prayers: Anna-Liisa, Bud, Ruth, Susan, Chris, Werner and Debbie, Karen, Jim, Bill, Isa, Zoilita, Lisa, Barrie and Stella, Irene and Kelly, John and Julianna, Florence, Nicky and Dwayne, Sadie, Beth, Caitlin, and those we name in our hearts (brief silence...). And we pray for Val, her family, and all of us who mourn the passing of Ron Webb this week. Grant us a sure confidence in your loving care that, casting all our sorrow on you, we may know the consolation of your love. Merciful God,

receive our prayer.

Enfold all travelers with your protection. Bless the comings and goings of this assembly as we travel for leisure or for work. Let all journeys be met with hospitality on the way, and let community members return to us with celebration. Merciful God,
receive our prayer.

Now is the acceptable time; now is the day of salvation for all the redeemed of the Lord. Joined together with the great cloud of witnesses, we give thanks for your steadfast love and your wonderful works. Merciful God,
receive our prayer.

Receive our prayers, O God, and come quickly to our aid, through the power of the Spirit and the love of Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you all!
And also with you.

June 23 Fundraising Update

■ Donations ■ Pledges ■ Target ($30,000)

We are getting so close! —just $2,484.60 to go! Maybe we can get there before cottage season really gets underway?!

Please continue to consider donating to this project! If we meet our current target or pass it there is a chance reduce the cost of the next phase, for example, only bringing in large equipment once which is more cost effective and might let us jump start phase two!

Donor & Pledge cards with envelopes are available in the narthex along with pictures of the plants we are hoping to put in the garden. Thank you for your generous support!

Women of Faith Annual Potluck Lunch: Everyone is welcome to join the Women of Faith at Pearl Robinson's house on Wednesday June 26, 2024 for a potluck lunch starting at noon. 149 Waverly Drive, across from the school. Please join us for Sun and Fellowship!

Summer office hours: Please note that in July and August the office will be open on Wednesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. There may be some adjustments in August which will be announced in the bulletin. Regular hours will resume on September 3, 2024.

The Seven Sacred Teachings — Bravery

Bravery is represented by the bear.

The mother bear has the courage and strength to face her fears and challenges while protecting her young. The bear also shows us how to live a balanced life with rest, survival and play.

To face life with courage is to know bravery.

Find your inner strength to face the difficulties of life and the courage to be yourself.

Defend what you believe in and what is right for your community, family, and self.

Make positive choices and have conviction in your decisions.

Face your fears to allow yourself to live your life.
