Welcome

Acknowledgment of Territory

All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church exists on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron / Neutral People. We honour the original ancestors of this land and also offer respect and friendship to our Haudenosaunee, Anishinaabe, Mississauga and Métis neighbours. We give thanks for the First Peoples and all who have cared for the land and made it possible for us to dwell and do ministry on this land, and we commit ourselves to walk in right relations with one another.

Thanksgiving for Baptism

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, the fountain of living water, the rock who gave us birth, our light and our salvation. Amen.

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

The assisting minister pours water into the baptismal font.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight.

Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family. Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom. At the river Jesus was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.

By water and your Word you claim us as your children, making us heirs of your promise and servants of all.

We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life, and above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ. Shower us with your Spirit, and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love.

To you be given honor and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.
Amen.

Choir Anthem

WORD

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

First Reading – 1 Samuel 1:4-20

This story introduces us to Hannah who is unable to have children, and to her husband Elkanah. God grants Hannah’s prayer to have a child, and she bears a son, Samuel, who will be an important figure in Israel’s history.

⁴ On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters; ⁵ but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the LORD had closed her womb. ⁶ Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb. ⁷ So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she used to provoke Hannah. Therefore, Hannah wept and would not eat. ⁸ Her husband Elkanah said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?”

⁹ After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the LORD. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD. ¹⁰ She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly. ¹¹ She made this vow: “O LORD of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head.”

¹⁹ They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. ²⁰ In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, “I have asked him of the LORD.”

Word of God. Word of Life.
Thanks be to God!

Psalm 1 Samuel 2:1-10

This is the song Hannah sings in gratitude for the birth of her child, Samuel. Can you see similarities between this song and Mary's Magnificat?

- 1 My heart exults in the LORD; my strength is exalted | in my God.
My mouth derides my enemies, because I re- | jice in my victory.
- 2 There is no Holy One like the LORD, no | one besides you;
there is no Rock | like our God.
- 3 Talk no more so very proudly, let not arrogance come | from your mouth;
for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by the LORD ac- | tions are weighed.
- 4 The bows of the might- | y are broken,
but the feeble | gird on strength. R
- 5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread, but those who were hungry are | fat with spoil.
The barren has borne seven, but she who has many children | is forlorn.
- 6 The LORD kills and | brings to life;
the LORD brings down to Sheol and | raises up.
- 7 The LORD makes poor | and makes rich;
brings low, and al- | so exalts.

- 8 The LORD raises up the poor from the dust;
lifting the needy from the ash heap, to make them sit with princes and inherit a | seat of honour.
For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and on them God has | set the world. R

- 9 You, LORD, will guard the feet of your | faithful ones, but the wicked shall be cut off in darkness; for not by might does | one prevail.
- 10 The LORD's adversaries shall be shattered; the Most High will thun- | der in heaven.
O LORD, you will judge the ends of the earth;
you will give strength to your king, and exalt the power of | your anointed. R

Second Reading – Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

Images of worship and sacrifice are used throughout Hebrews to highlight what Christ has uniquely accomplished through his death.

- 11 Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. 12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” 13 and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” 14 For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified...

¹⁹ Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰ by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), ²¹ and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²² let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³ Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. ²⁴ And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, ²⁵ not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Word of God. Word of Life.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading – Mark 13:1-8

The holy gospel according to Mark
Glory to you, O Lord.

¹ As [Jesus] came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” ² Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

³ When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴ “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” ⁵ Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. ⁶ Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. ⁷ When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. ⁸ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.”

The gospel of Christ.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayers

Rooted in God's abundant love for the world, let us pray for our neighbours, the church, and all of creation.

O God, in the washing of water you set us free from the power of sin and death. Unite all the baptized in the covenant you have made with us, as we strive for your justice and peace in all the earth. We pray today for the Secretaries General and staff of the offices of the Anglican Communion and the Lutheran World Federation. Merciful God, receive our prayer.

By your merciful might you sustain all creation. Stir us from complacency with the harm we inflict on the earth, and urge us to adopt sustainable ways of life that protect and restore our planet. Merciful God,

receive our prayer.

With a selfless power you protect all who take refuge in you. As nations rise against nations, defend all who are displaced or affected by war or violence, especially Sudan, Ukraine and Russia, Gaza, Israel, the West Bank, and Lebanon. Empower all people and nations to pursue peace. Merciful God,

receive our prayer.

In your presence you give fullness of joy. Care for all for whom joy feels distant. Be present with persons experiencing depression, anxiety, addiction, or any mental illness. We pray especially for those who desire our prayers: Anna-Liisa, Bud, Ruth, Susan, Chris, Werner and Debbie, John and Julianna, Ross and Karen, Isa, Zoilita, Bill, Barrie, Irene, Kelly, and those we name before you in our hearts (brief silence...). Bring them healing and wholeness. Merciful God,

receive our prayer.

Through the years you have gathered your church and this community for worship, fellowship, formation, and service. Enable us to look beyond the walls of our building to perceive where you are calling us forward. Merciful God, receive our prayer.

With thanksgiving we remember saints and angels who delight in your everlasting presence. As their lives inspire ours, provoke us always to love, holding fast to the confession of our hope in you. Merciful God, receive our prayer.

We offer our prayers to you, gracious God, trusting in your boundless love for all that you have made, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen

May the peace of Christ be with you all!
And also with you.

Session: What do bequests, life insurance gifts, donor-advised funds, gifts of securities, and retirement & estate planning all have in common? They are ways in which you can be a good steward of the gifts given to you over a lifetime. They are ways in which you can leave a legacy of gratitude.
