Deacon - Rev. Christine Clatworthy

Please be aware that our Sunday service is video streamed to our YouTube channel for public viewing. If you feel sensitive to this thought and wish to remain out of the occasional line of view, consider sitting in the back left two rows of pews. Thank you.

Please remember to wear your nametag.

Dear Little Saints-

Welcome from all the Big Saints

Before the service even starts, you will need to prepare

Upcoming is a longish sit and grownups want you there

Instead of wiggling, yawning, sighing

You could be bright new markers trying or putting stickers in your book

Or even take a little look

*Oh joy, cause somebody loves me true
There's juice or sweets or cookies too*

*When you've been good as gold for ever and still the talking lasts forever
just dig inside and have a treat
Your Sunday sack is really "sweet"!!!!!!
(and also is a take home treat!)*

We welcome all children to our worship. There is no Sunday Church School at this time. Please ask the ushers for a children's bulletin and/or help them fill a bag with activities and treats from the basket in the narthex.

Communion: All are welcome. Please let an usher know if you need to take Communion in your seat.

the Gathering Song is sung.

No Scents Makes Good Sense. Members have indicated that they suffer discomfort from perfumes, hair sprays, colognes, and after-shave lotions. Please help us provide a scent-free environment.

Choir Anthem – Sing to the Lord of Harvest, Healey Willan

First Reading: Deuteronomy 8:7-18

As they are about to cross the Jordan River and enter the Promised Land, Moses tells the people to remember the One who led them out of slavery in Egypt, who gave them the Torah at Mount Sinai and led them through the wilderness, bringing them to this moment: the faithful fulfillment of the promise first made to their ancestor Abraham.

⁷“The LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, ⁸ a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey, ⁹ a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. ¹⁰ You shall eat your fill and bless the LORD your God for the good land that he has given you.

¹¹“Take care that you do not forget the LORD your God by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes that I am commanding you today. ¹² When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them ¹³ and when your herds and flocks have multiplied and your silver and gold is multiplied and all that you have is multiplied, ¹⁴ then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, ¹⁵ who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock. ¹⁶ He fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you and in the end to do you good.

¹⁷ Do not say to yourself, ‘My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.’ ¹⁸ But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.”

Word of God. Word of life.
Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 9:6-15

Paul, gathering a collection for the church in Jerusalem from all the Gentile churches he helped found, is encouraging them to give generously out of the blessings they have received.

6The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 7Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. 8And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. 9As it is written,

“He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever.”

¹⁰He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. ¹¹You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us; ¹²for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God. ¹³Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others, ¹⁴while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you. ¹⁵Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

Word of God. Word of Life.
Thanks be to God!

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

The holy gospel according to Luke.
Glory to you, O Lord.

¹¹On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. ¹²As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, ¹³they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” ¹⁴When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean.

¹⁵Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. ¹⁶He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? ¹⁸Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” ¹⁹Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

The gospel of Christ.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayers

United with the great cloud of witnesses, we offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all of creation.

Loving God, you call your church to remember that every good gift comes from you. Strengthen the faithful in every nation to live with gratitude, generosity, and courage, sharing bread, hope, and justice with all in need. God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

You give us land, water, seed, and season. Heal the places we have harmed; teach us to farm, build, and consume in ways that protect soil, air, and creatures; and raise up leaders who choose long-term care over short-term gain. God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

You desire peace and fairness among nations. Guide governments to cooperate on food, shelter, health care, and climate; protect refugees and migrants; and turn enemies toward dialogue instead of war. We pray especially for the people of Ukraine, Gaza and the Middle East, and Sudan. God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

You walk with those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit. Give skill to caregivers, rest to the exhausted, and hope to those who are afraid. We pray especially for those who desire our prayers: Anna-Liisa, Bud, Ruth, Werner and Debbie, John and Julianna, Ross and Karen, Ken and Matzi, Andrew and Vesna, Alice, Irene, Greg and Mary, Elaine and David, Christa and Ken, Bruce and Jean, Sharon, Deacon Chris, Barbara, Marilyn, Michelle, John, Heather, Carley and Aeryn, Katheryne, and those we remember in our hearts... (silence...) God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

You gather us as one body in this place. Bless our friendships, our small groups, and our ministries; help us notice who is lonely, and to welcome who is new. God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of the living and the dead, we thank you for all who have finished their race in faith. Comfort those who grieve; keep us connected to the cloud of witnesses; and draw us all into your eternal thanksgiving. God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Into your steadfast love, faithful God, we entrust all for whom we pray, in the name of Jesus, your beloved. Amen

Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you all!
And also with you.

Eucharistic Prayer

Holy God, our Bread of life, our Table, and our Food, you created a world in which all might be satisfied by your abundance.

You dined with Abraham and Sarah, promising them life, and fed your people Israel with manna from heaven.

You sent Jesus to eat with sinners and to become food for the world.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his life given for us and his rising from the grave, we await his coming again and again to share with us the everlasting feast.

By your Spirit nurture and sustain us with this meal:
strengthen us to serve all in hunger and want, and by this bread and cup make of us the body of Christ, through whom all glory and honour is yours, Almighty God, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy Church, both now and forever.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to communion

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
We, being many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Thanks be to God!

Last year the Guelph Tool Library and the Helper Bees collect over 5,000 socks for distribution to those who are unhoused in the City of Guelph. They are looking for our help again this year.

So, the goal this year is to collect another 5,000 pairs of socks for distribution this winter. Starting in October there will be a bin upstairs (in the narthex) and another one downstairs (we are inviting our Community Partners to contribute to this campaign as well) to collect your sock donations.
