All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church exists on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron / Neutral People. We honour the original ancestors of this land and also offer respect and friendship to our Haudenosaunee, Anishinaabe, Mississauga and Métis neighbours. We give thanks for the First Peoples and all who have cared for the land and made it possible for us to dwell and do ministry on this land, and we commit ourselves to walk in right relations with one another. Today we acknowledge the Sacred Teaching of Wisdom – to cherish knowledge and use our gifts wisely, recognizing our differences in kind and respectful ways.

PSALM: Psalm 30

- ¹I will exalt you, O LORD, because you have lift- | ed me up
and have not let my enemies triumph | over me.
- ²O LORD my God, I cried | out to you,
and you restored | me to health.
- ³You brought me up, O LORD, | from the dead;
you restored my life as I was going down | to the grave.
- ⁴Sing praise to the LORD, | all you faithful;
give thanks in ho- | ly remembrance. R
- ⁵God's wrath is short; God's favor | lasts a lifetime.
Weeping spends the night, but joy comes | in the morning.
- ⁶While I felt se- | cure, I said,
"I shall never | be disturbed.
- ⁷You, LORD, with your favor, made me as strong | as the mountains."
Then you hid your face, and I was | filled with fear.
- ⁸I cried to | you, O LORD;
I pleaded with | my Lord, saying,
- ⁹"What profit is there in my blood, if I go down | to the pit?
Will the dust praise you or de- | clare your faithfulness?"
- ¹⁰Hear, O LORD, and have mer- | cy upon me;
O LORD, | be my helper." R

¹¹You have turned my wailing | into dancing;
you have put off my sackcloth and clothed | me with joy.

¹²Therefore my heart sings to you | without ceasing;
O LORD my God, I will give you | thanks forever. R

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 8:7-15

Paul encourages the Corinthians to honor their commitment to participate in the collection his churches are organizing for the Christians in Jerusalem.

⁷Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

⁸I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. ⁹For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something—¹¹now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. ¹²For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. ¹³I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between ¹⁴your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. ¹⁵As it is written,

“The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.”

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Mark 5:21-43

The holy gospel according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

²¹When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. ²²Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet ²³and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” ²⁴So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. ²⁵Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. ²⁶She had endured much under many physicians and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. ²⁷She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, ²⁸for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." ²⁹Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. ³⁰Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?" ³¹And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?'" ³²He looked all around to see who had done it. ³³But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. ³⁴He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace and be healed of your disease."

³⁵While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" ³⁶But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." ³⁷He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. ³⁸When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. ³⁹When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." ⁴⁰And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him and went in where the child was. ⁴¹He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!" ⁴²And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. ⁴³He strictly ordered them that no one should know this and told them to give her something to eat.

The gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

We come before the triune God to pray for our communities, ourselves, and our world.

Guiding God, grant us the wisdom to be people who balance the needs of the future with the needs of the present and to choose the right path even when it is the more difficult one. We pray today for the bishop, clergy, and people of the Diocese of Athabasca, and for Lutheran and Anglican summer camp ministries. All knowing God,

Teach us to be wise like the beaver.

Help us to not be so blinded by our own understandings that we discount that which others believe to be true. May we have open ears and hearts to listen to others and clear minds to discern what is true. All knowing God,

Teach us to be wise like the beaver.

Remind us to look to you, creation, and our elders for wisdom and not to depend solely on our own knowledge. Encourage us to share our wisdom with each other so that we may all learn from one another's experiences and grow together for the collective good. All knowing God,

Teach us to be wise like the beaver.

We pray for those in school, working to gain the knowledge they need to pursue their career goals. Please watch over any students struggling to be successful and help them to find where their skills and abilities are needed. Listening God,

Teach us to be wise like the beaver.

Guiding God, in the confusing times of misinformation and fake news, grant us the wisdom to be able to discern what is real and what is fabricated and to not let those with mal intent manipulate and divide us. God of knowledge,

Teach us to be wise like the beaver.

We pray for all who are ill in mind, body, or spirit. Give your wisdom to all medical professionals and care givers, so that all may enjoy the benefits of your gracious gifts in our lives. We pray especially for those who desire our prayers: Anna-Liisa, Bud, Ruth, Susan, Chris, Werner and Debbie, Karen, Jim, Bill, Isa, Zoilita, Lisa, Barrie and Stella, Irene and Kelly, John and Julianna, Florence, Nicky and Dwayne, Sadie, Beth, Caitlin, Kathy and those we name in our hearts (brief silence...). God of knowledge, Teach us to be wise like the beaver.

Guiding God, you visit us in the person of the Holy Spirit, who breathes wisdom upon us. Grace us so that our faith, speech, and knowledge are guided by a concern for justice for all. Open our eyes, ears, and hearts so that our actions serve the flourishing of all creation. Embolden us to live with less so that more might live with enough. This we pray through Jesus our guide. Amen

PEACE

May the peace of Christ be with you all!
And also with you.

Environmental Stewardship Update: Almost there!

June 30 Fundraising Update

We are getting so close! —just $2,269.60 to go! Maybe we can get there before cottage season really gets underway?!

Please continue to consider donating to this project! If we meet our current target or pass it there is a chance reduce the cost of the next phase, for example, only bringing in large equipment once which is more cost effective and might let us jump start phase two!

Donor & Pledge cards with envelopes are available in the narthex along with pictures of the plants we are hoping to put in the garden. Thank you for your generous support!

Easter 2025 Open House and Arts Exhibition at All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church

We are planning to host a community-wide invitational Open House and Arts Exhibition offering people in the community an opportunity to reflect on the meaning of Easter through its message of Faith, Hope and Love.

To do this we need your help! We are looking for people with the following talents to start the organization and promotion of this event:

- ❖ A person(s) with local arts organizations connections and some art show experience.
- ❖ A person(s) to reach out to local faith communities.
- ❖ A person(s) with social media skills, which will be our main promotional tool.
- ❖ Someone to design a promotional poster for digital and print promotions.

The work for this needs to get started during the summer so please contact Greg Elliott at greg.liturgical@gmail.com before July 10 for more details or if you can help.

Formula Fund: Please consider making a special donation to the formula fund over the next few months in support of baby Jeremiah. Just mark your envelope or e-transfer with "Formula fund– Carol" so we can set that aside for this specific need. Thank you!

Silvercreek Community Market: We need RICE, red lentils, canned tomatoes, pasta sauce, canned meat and fish and cooking oil (1L size).

There is a special need for school snacks for children—fruit cups and granola bars would be great to add to our supply—we never have enough of these items! Thank you.

Summer office hours: Please note that in July and August the office will be open on Wednesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. There may be some adjustments in August which will be announced in the bulletin. Regular hours will resume on September 3, 2024.

The Seven Sacred Teachings — Wisdom

The beaver represents wisdom because it uses its natural gift wisely for survival. The beaver also alters its environment in an environmentally friendly and sustainable way for the benefit of his family.

To cherish knowledge is to know wisdom. Use your inherent gifts wisely and live your life by them. Recognize your differences and those of others in a kind and respectful way.

Continuously observe the life of all things around you.

Listen with clarity and a sound mind.

Respect your own limitations and those of all of your surroundings.

Allow yourself to learn and live by your wisdom.
