WELCOME

We welcome you to our worship today.

Hymnbooks:

Our community uses two hymnbooks.

(ELW) Evangelical Lutheran Worship has a cranberry cover.

(CP) Common Praise has a blue cover.

You will find either (ELW) or (CP) beside each hymn number to indicate which book we are singing from.

Communion: All are welcome.

Our current practice is to distribute communion in a continuous fashion. We encourage you to take the time you need when receiving both the bread and the wine. For those who desire a time of kneeling, after receiving the bread and wine, you are invited to kneel at the rail (cushions have been provided), or return to your seats and use the kneeling rails in the pews.

We make available grape juice and gluten free bread. Please inform one of the Communion Servers that you wish to have one or both of these elements during the distribution of Communion.

No Scents Makes Good Sense. Members have indicated that they suffer discomfort from perfumes, hair spray, colognes and after-shave lotion. Please help us provide a scent-free environment.

We welcome all children to our worship. We also have a child friendly space in the fellowship area at the back of the church. Drink boxes, activity bags and youth bulletins are in a basket near the entrance to the church. Please help yourself.

GATHERING

The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

Prelude

Welcome / Acknowledgement of Territory

Confession and Forgiveness

Grace to you and peace, from God our Creator, and our Lord Jesus Christ. The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God; their bodies are buried in peace, but their names live forevermore.

Amen.

On this Remembrance Day, when the stain of war is ever before us, and the memory of sacrifice and loss is present with us, let us confess our sin in the presence of God, and one another.

Almighty God,

We are people of clay, molded and mended by our societies and cultures, formed in ways that misshape us from the work of your hands. Forgive us for the ways in which we have judged others by our standards and not by yours.

Our notions of justice and peace fall short of your standards of pure justice and holy righteousness.

Forgive us for creating and perpetuating conflict both within the borders of our community and countries, and across the borders of others. We have become people of words, and not actions. Others have perished while we have stood by. Forgive us for our inaction, and bless us to become people of living justice and not just bystanders. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, renew our spirits and our hearts that we may seek and serve you in newness of life.

We are people of conflict, given to petty disputes and squabbling. Like the apostles, we seek personal stature over community health. Jesus comes to us, and models the way of service, self-sacrifice, and commitment to the common good of all. May God strengthen us, empower us, and forgive us In the name of Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven and you are made new. May you rejoice in this new day, remembering those who have given everything in the cause of peace and freedom, and find peace and wholeness with your neighbour that their sacrifice not be in vain.

Gathering Song – # 713 ELW

Greeting

Hymn of Praise

Refrain
Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and peace to God's peo-ple on earth.

Refrain

2 Lord Je-sus Christ, on-ly Son of the Fa-ther, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world: have mer-cy on us; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther: re-ceive our prayer.

Refrain
Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and peace to God's peo-ple on earth.

3 For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spir-it, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men.

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and peace to God's peo-ple on earth.

Prayer of the Day

Gracious and holy God, lead us from death to life, from falsehood to truth. Lead us from despair to hope, from fear to trust. Lead us from hate to love, from war to peace. Let peace fill our hearts, our world, our universe; through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord.

Amen.

Children's Message for Remembrance Day

WORD

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

First Reading – 1 Kings 17: 8 – 16

A reading from 1 Kings.

The word of the Lord came to [Elijah,] saying, “Go now to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there; for I have commanded a widow there to feed you.” So he set out and went to Zarephath.

When he came to the gate of the town, a widow was there gathering sticks; he called to her and said, “Bring me a little water in a vessel, so that I may drink.” As she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, “Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand.” But she said, “As the Lord your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a jug; I am now gathering a couple of sticks, so that I may go home and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die.” Elijah said to her, “Do not be afraid; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterwards make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the Lord the God of Israel: The jar of meal will not be emptied and the jug of oil will not fail until the day that the Lord sends rain on the earth.” She went and did as Elijah said, so that she as well as he and her household ate for many days. The jar of meal was not emptied, neither did the jug of oil fail, according to the word of the Lord that he spoke by Elijah.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading – Mark 12: 38 – 44

The holy gospel according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Or

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

As [Jesus] taught, he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.” He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Or

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
